The Crescent Athlette Club to Hold an Invitaon Meeting With Six of the Crack Players of the Country, Including Hobart-Play for New Jersey Championship Opens To-day. The Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, has decided to enter the lawn tennis field once more, and under the energetic managenent of W. F. Powers, chairman of its Tennis Committee, the invitation tournament offischeduled to be held at Bay Ridge June 27, 28 and 20, promises to be one of the most important features of the present ason The meeting will be held on the so popular by the Neighborhood Club, of West Newton, Mass., that it became known in England as the "American plan." In fact the Crescent tournaments are likely to take the place in future of the former West Newton tation events. Six of the strongest layers in the country are expected to play Bay Ridge and each will meet the others turn, the handsome prizes offered by the club going to the men with the best percenage of matches won at the end of the series. The exact entry list has not yet been announced, but Chairman Powers gave out seterday the information that the players wited to take part are Champion M. I. Whitman. W. A. Larned, B. C. Wright, Clarence Richard Stevens and L. E. Ware. there is still some doubt about the acceptance of one or two of these players, but it is known at Larned. Wright and Hobart have agreed This will be Hobart's first appearance on this side of the ocean in many years, nd the results of his matches will be doubly interesting because of his two years' experionice abroad in 1808 and 1809 in the English tournaments. He has been practising at Summit, N. J., with Larned.

This Crescent tournament will precede Middle States championship by only few days, and it is expected that all those entered at Bay Ridge will play at Orange following week Champion Whitman holds the Middle States title, and he is expected to defend it against the winner. An funovation this year in the Middle States championship and also in the Western chamcionship at Chicago will be the fact that, except in the earliest rounds of the latter. the matches will be the best three in five sets instead of the best two in three, as heretofore, and the importance of both events will be materially increased by this alteration, putting them on the same level with the Eastern championship at Longwood later in the season.

Another sign of the prosperous revival in lawn tennis interests is the positive announcement that the former invitation tournament at Tuxedo Park will be held this year during the week of July 8. Invitations have already been sent out for this meeting, and although the date conflicts with both the Vestern championship and the Canadian championship a large entry list is expected at Tuxedo E. P. Fischer won the challenge cup when it was last played for, and he will defend it this year. Fischer has also held defend it this year. Fischer has also held the two-year challenge cup offered by the Buffalo Lawn Tennis Club for several years, without a chance to defend it. The tournament at Buffalo is to be revived this year as the New York State championship, and the Metropolitan expert will defend the trophy during the Pan-American Exposition the week after Tuxedo. An effort is being made to have the New York State championship held in the Stadium at the Exposition grounds in Buffalo, but the courts have not yet been built there, and it is probable that thay would be too poor for matches of such importance if constructed only a few weeks before the tournament date. In that case the matches will be played on the old grounds of the Buffalo L. T.

The local tournament season is now fully

The Pennsylvania State championship will be seek during the same week, beginning into 17, on the grounds of the Merion Cricket. This tournament has been thream open this year to all, and the vinners will be called upon to meet the champions of irst season, W. J. Clothier in the diades and W. J. Harness Racing Winds Up at Baltimore. BALTIMORE, June 9.—The trotting meeting at the Gentlemen's Driving Park closed yesterday. The 2:25 trot was the most interesting. Camilla, a bay mare from Lynbrook, N. Y. was touted as a good thing, but Davis failed to land his mare and after the second heat he was called up and advised to do better. Davis plied his whip in the next heat, but the mare failed to respond. Bingen, Jr., finally had it out with Rara Avis and won after six heats. Evadne, a Red Wilkes mare owned here, won the 2:13 race after losing the first heat. Summaries:

GALES FERRY, June 9 - Yale's oarsmen were favored with fine weather to-day. The day was spent as Sundays usually are by the college representatives while in training here. Members of both 'Varsity and freshmen crews attended morning services at the Methodist Church and listened to the Rev. Richard Povey's discourse. Early this even-Richard Povey's discourse. Early this evening the majority of the oarsmen were having a lively game of baseball, merely as a form of exercise rather than an infraction on the Connecticut blue laws.

Head Coach Allen reported all the men in fine condition. Capt. Weymouth of the freshmen crew stated this afternoon that every one was in fine fettle. "We have all had a good rest to-day," said the captain,
"and we will be in good condition to-morrow to put in a hard week at training."
